About ek Koshish

We are a group of Students and Alumni from the Central University of Rajasthan seeing “eK koshish” as a non-political, non-religious and non-profit movement. Under this movement, we are looking to associate and work collectively with the individuals/NGOs and organizations working in solving the challenges faced by society.

We are starting our journey with our first initiative, “eK koshish – Blood Donation! Nationwide Mapping of Blood Donors”.

About the Work-from-Home Job/Internship

Responsibilities of the selected candidates include:

1. Responsible to spread awareness about blood donation and creating a platform for potential donors.
2. Work for promotion of our online fundraising campaign and helping in raising funds.
3. Engage in other volunteering activities like social media promotions and poster making.
4. Work on innovative ideas and brainstorm ways in which we can map potential donors.

Who can apply?

1. Available for the work from home Job/Internship.
2. Can start the work from home Job/Internship between 15th June, 2021 and 20th June, 2021.
3. Available for duration of minimum 4 weeks.
4. Should have relevant skills and interests.

Additional Information

The candidate will be provided with an experience certificate along with a letter of recommendation. The candidate will also be provided with basic training and induction sessions so that candidate(s) with no or less experience can work efficiently and without facing any difficulty.

Note: Certificates will be provided by Remissas India Private Limited under the eK koshish Movement.
